Q24b Recently the National Bureau of Economic Research, the panel of experts who determine when an economic downturn begins and ends, declared that the country's recession officially ended more than a year ago, in June 2009. What do you think? Is the recession over, are we still in a recession, or do you not have an opinion on this one way or the other?*

Yes, recession is over	19
No, still in a recession	70
No opinion one way or the other.....	10
Not sure.....	1

 Asked of one-half the respondents (FORM B).

Q25 Thinking about the economic recession for just you and your immediate family---how much of an impact has it had on you and your family---using a scale of 1 to 10 with 10 meaning a tremendous amount, 5 meaning just some effect, and 1 meaning almost no effect, what number would you select. You may choose any number from one to ten. (IF "NOT SURE," RECORD AS "DK.")

Now, changing topics...

Q26 In 2001, most Americans received a "temporary" tax cut that is scheduled to end in 2010. Congress will soon decide whether or not to end the tax cut for those households with the highest incomes.

When it comes to the current tax rate for households with incomes over two hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year, would you like to see the tax cut end or not?

Would like to see tax cut end	49
Would not like to see tax cut end.....	45
No opinion (VOL)	4
Not sure	2

Q27 Thinking some more about this... Please tell me which ONE statement you agree with more. Is it that the tax cuts for households making over two hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year should...(ROTATE.)

End as planned because it is unfair to borrow seven hundred billion dollars over the next ten years to give a tax cut of about one hundred thousand dollars to people who are already millionaires.

...OR should the tax cuts...

Be kept in place because in this difficult economy we should not be increasing taxes on any Americans, especially small businesses, as higher taxes will kill jobs and slow down the economy.

A/Tax cuts should end.....	47
B/Tax cuts should be kept in place	47
A little of both (VOL)	2
